Old Business

- A. Pine Lake Firestation- 1 ad has been placed in the firestation. Tim made a motion to increase the budget to $800 to run the 2 additional ads in the Herald Argus to keep firestation on site. Bob B. 2nd. Motioned passed. Tim and Pam will work on next ad.
- B. Outstanding Historic Preservation Award- May is Historic Preservation month. Motion made by Pete, Andy 2nd to award this to the Kevin & Lorie Reed home at 616 C St. Motioned passed. Pam will notify them.
- C. Orr Mansion- Pam reported that a family from Chicago has purchased the mansion. They plan on moving into their after they do some work. How exciting.
- D. Civil War Monument update – Bob K. has has head of this to repair. Materials have been ordered. When completed, they plan on a Civil War Renactment buriel.
- E. PEP Brochure- Peet will gather info. Suggested to use a color picture of the Reed house on the front. Another great color picture would be the stained glass skylight at the Rumely apartments that PEP donated to some years ago.

NEW BUSINESS

- A. Historic Bridges in La Porte County- Todd Zeiger, from Historic Landmarks in South Bend sent info to PEP. They are looking for help in identifying these bridges in La Porte County. Andy will keep a look out while on his 2nd job that takes him all around. Also, will send to County and museum for suggestions.
- B. Court House- Bob Kopnick is restoring a chandelier and sconce from the museum that was once in the court house. PEP would like to lobby commissioners about the lightning as they are going to start inside restoration.
